We're Roselien and Nico, a Belgian duo who traded grey skies for the Portuguese blue.

Roselien (°1984) is a passionate chef who's done it all, from running her own catering business in Belgium and the Netherlands to working everywhere from cozy coffee bars to Michelin-starred kitchens.

Nico (°1972) is a lifelong cycling enthusiast who spent 30 years as a sports journalist. He believes there's no better way to explore life (or Portugal!) than on two wheels.

Tired of cold winters and endless rain, we packed up and headed south to start something that brings our passions together, Café Velo. Here, good food meets good rides, and every day feels a little bit like a holiday.

Come join us,
for a coffee, a bite, or a bike!
